

CINDY A. HOLDORFF

Cindy A. Holdorff is a Partner with the accounting and litigation services firm of White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna, Wolf & Hunt, LLP. Ms. Holdorff has been providing litigation and consulting services to clients since 1988. She is responsible for performing accounting and financial analyses on behalf of attorneys involved in litigation, including patent, trademark and copyright infringement, unfair competition, breach of contract, royalty audits, profit participation disputes, and wrongful termination.

Prior to joining White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna, Wolf & Hunt, LLP, she was a Partner at Simpson & Company, a litigation accounting firm. Ms. Holdorff's prior experience includes working as a senior associate in the Litigation Services practice at Coopers & Lybrand, a "Big 5" accounting firm, where she specialized in forensic accounting and damage claim analysis. She has also worked as an internal auditor at the Southern California Gas Company.

Ms. Holdorff has taught and participated in many training programs in litigation services. She regularly teaches Minimum Continuing Legal Education courses for attorneys in Los Angeles. Courses she has presented include: "Introduction to Financial Statements" and "Determining Damages in Business Litigation." She has also been an instructor for the continuing professional education training programs.

Ms. Holdorff has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Southern California. She is a Certified Public Accountant and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.