

EMILY M. REICH, CPA/ABV

Emily M. Reich is a Partner in the accounting and litigation services firm of White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna, Wolf & Hunt, LLP. Ms. Reich has performed financial and accounting analyses on behalf of attorneys involved in litigation. Such analyses include characterizing property as community or separate property, tracing assets to determine source and uses of funds in business dissolutions, review and analysis of the veracity of financial data, determining cash available for support, computing standard of living reports and preparing business appraisals in connection with commercial litigation and marital dissolutions.

She has testified as a financial expert in Superior Court as well as arbitration in financial accounting and tax matters. Ms. Reich has also testified in court relating to family law issues, including property division and child and spousal support.

She has extensive experience in all aspects of income taxation including minimizing income taxes for both business enterprises and individuals. She represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service and other agencies. Her extensive experience in business consulting includes advising clients on methods to improve operating efficiency and profitability.

Prior to joining White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna, Wolf & Hunt, LLP, Ms. Reich was in private practice since 1989 serving a variety of clients on tax, accounting and consulting matters, which consist principally of entrepreneurial business enterprises and high net worth individuals. These clients covered a broad range of professions and industries including manufacturing, real estate, entertainment, healthcare and technology. Prior thereto, Ms. Reich was employed at several accounting firms where she also served the financial needs of various business enterprises and individuals.

Ms. Reich received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Puget Sound in Accounting. She is a Certified Public Accountant and member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. She also holds the AICPA's Accreditation in Business Valuation designation. She is the co-author of The 1040 Handbook, A Guide to Income and Discovery published by the American Bar Association. She is also an associate member of Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.